INDIANAPOLIS MAN SENTENCED FOR COUNTERFEITING

PRESS RELEASE

Susan W. Brooks, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, announced that DANIEL CURL, 33, Indianapolis, Indiana, was sentenced to 40 months imprisonment today by U.S. District Judge John Daniel Tinder following his previously entered guilty plea to Counterfeiting. This case was the result of an investigation by the U.S. Secret Service and Indianapolis Police Department.

CURL made counterfeit Federal Reserve Notes of various denominations. On September 3, 2005, CURL was apprehended by officers of the Indianapolis Police Department after he attempted to pass a counterfeit fifty dollar Federal Reserve Note to a Village Pantry located in Indianapolis, Indiana. The Indianapolis Police Department then notified the United States Secret Service who then took jurisdiction over the case. A subsequent search of Curl's residence led to the recovery of multiple counterfeit notes, as well as the printer and other equipment Curl used to create the fraudulent currency.

According to Assistant United States Attorney James M. Warden, who prosecuted the case for the government, Judge Tinder also imposed 3 years supervised release following CURL' s release from imprisonment, and a $500 fine.
